Presented by the Human Services Coalition

In cooperation with the Diversity Consortium of Tompkins County

Co-sponsored by the Tompkins County Public Library

A WORKSHOP FOR ANYONE INTERESTED IN HOW TO BECOME A SUPPORTIVE ALLY FOR THOSE WHO ARE MOST VULNERABLE TO DISCRIMINATION IN WORKPLACES AND COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS.

The word 'ally' is often used to describe people who are not themselves vulnerable to racial, gender and other forms of discrimination but who are genuinely committed to the work of reducing institutional and interpersonal oppressions.

Yet even people who have the best intentions can sometimes perpetuate practices that produce negative outcomes.

This workshop considers useful practices in the work of becoming a good ally in everyday workplace environments and community organizations. It considers the often fraught and difficult process of building trust across race, gender, and sexuality divides.

The workshop will focus on:

- Understanding how good intentions can sometime produce bad outcomes
- Understanding when and how to become a good ally
- Becoming aware of the sustained and sometimes emotionally difficult work of staying committed to the work of effective allyship

About the Presenter:

Dr. Paula Ioanide is an associate professor at the Center for the Study of Culture, Race, and Ethnicity at Ithaca College. Her teaching and research focus on the negative effects of present-day racial and gender injustices. She examines the social and spiritual wounds caused by mass incarceration and militarized policing, anti-immigrant discrimination, and increased poverty.

Paula has conducted numerous workshops on increasing racial and gender equity in higher education and employment settings. She believes in creating social justice cultures and movements that foster healing, interdependence, dignity and freedom.

Her book, The Emotional Politics of Racism: How Feelings Trump Facts in an Era of Colorblindness, is just out through Stanford University Press: <http://sup.org/books/title/?id=25108>

Driving and access

The Library is located in downtown Ithaca on the corner of East Green and South Cayuga Streets.

Directions for accessing the Library

The Library does not open its Main door until 9:30 am, so walk to the northeast corner of the building opposite the TCAT Green Street Station, turn right and enter at the door on the right under the green canopy. The Borg Warner room is immediately on your right.

Driving Directions

From North or South on Rt. 13 or 34: Proceed to Green Street in downtown Ithaca. Turn East (toward Cornell and downtown) on Green Street. Proceed approximately six blocks to Cayuga St, take a right turn and proceed as below.

From South on Rt. 96b: Proceed down hill on Aurora Street to East Clinton Street.

From East on Rt. 79 or 366: Proceed to downtown on State St hill and veer right onto Seneca St at the bottom of the hill. Stay in the left lane of Seneca St until you come to Cayuga St. Turn left on Cayuga St and proceed as below.

From West on Rt. 79, 96 or 89: Proceed east to Fulton St. Turn right on Fulton St and stay in the left lane. Turn left on Green St and proceed about seven blocks to Cayuga Street. Turn right and proceed as below.

From all directions: Park in the Cayuga St. parking garage behind the Library and across from Hotel Ithaca, or in the Green St. garage (entrance is past the "Pay and Display" and after the Cinemapolis sign on the left) diagonally across from the Library. Please note that "Pay and Display" parking is an option but the cost is twice that of the Green St. or Cayuga St. garages. The Library does not open the main door until 9:30 am, so go to the northeast corner of the Library building next to the TCAT Green Street Station, turn right and enter at the door on the right under the green canopy. The Borg Warner room is immediately on your right.

Accessible Parking

We recommend parking on the first floor (it's actually the second floor of the structure) of the Green Street parking garage near the lime green wall labeled "Green Street." There is an elevator that will take you down to the ground floor which outlets at the crosswalk on Green Street. Cross the street, turn right and it's a short distance to the northeast corner of the library, next TCAT's Green Street Station. Enter at the door under the green canopy. The Borg Warner room is immediately on your right. If the accessible parking spots are taken near the elevator you can also go one floor up and there are more spaces next to the elevator on the roof.

The Coalition is a United Way agency.
