

HUMAN SERVICES COALITION OF TOMPKINS COUNTY

Annual Meeting Presentations 1984 - 2018

- January 27, 1984 Dr. Laurie E. Ekstrand, Project Director for Program Evaluation and Methodology Division, United States General Accounting Office; Accountability in Human Services.
- January 25, 1985 Paul D. Moore, Executive Director of the New York State Commission on State and Local Relations; The Future of Revenue Sharing and Its Impact on Human Services.
- January 24, 1986 Mary Call, Chair, Tompkins County Board of Representatives; The Impact of Pending Government Cuts on Local Human Services.
- January 23, 1987 Mark Schultz, Editor, The Ithaca Times; What Have You Done for Me Lately: The Media's Responsibilities in Human Services Reporting.
- January 22, 1988 Audrey Cooper, Executive Director of the Southside Community Center and Donald Barr, Professor, Human Service Studies, Cornell University; Institutional Racism and Human Services.
- January 27, 1989 Sarah Liebschutz, Professor, Dept. of Political Science, SUNY Brockport and Chair of the Greater Rochester FOCUS; After the Assessment: What TC FOCUS Can Learn.
- January 26, 1990 Robert Peters, Housing Director of the Regional Economic Community Action Program (RECAP), Middletown New York; Housing the Homeless.
- January 25, 1991 Michael Burgess, Executive Director of the Non-Profit Resource Center, Albany, New York; Battling the Budget Blues: Tactics and Strategies.
- January 24, 1992 Edwin Crawford, Executive Director of the New York State Association of Counties, Albany New York; Mandate Relief: Relief for Whom?
- February 4, 1993 Mary Jo Bane, New York State Commissioner of Social Services; Making Public Assistance a Short Term Alternative.
- February 18, 1994 Barbara Mink, Vice Chair, Tompkins County Legislature; Lecturer, Johnson School of Management, Cornell University; Looking Ahead: What Can We Expect in 1994.
- February 17, 1995 Ellen Leifeld, President and Publisher, The Ithaca Journal; Community Journalism.
- February 15, 1996 Thomas Conway, Assistant Attorney General, Charities Bureau, NYS; The Role of the Attorney General in Assisting Not-for-Profits Accomplish Their Mission.
- March 10, 1997 Heather B. Weiss, Founder and Director, Harvard Family Research Project and Senior Research Associate and Lecturer, Harvard University Graduate School of Education; Getting Ready for New State and Community Responsibilities for Welfare and Social Services.

- January 29, 1998 Peggy R. Williams, President, Ithaca College; Ithaca College and the Community: Partners in Service.
- January 28, 1999 Scott Heyman, Executive Director, Planned Parenthood of Tompkins County; Governmental or Not-For-Profit Service Delivery: Does it Make a Difference?
- January 28, 2000 Tom Sanzillo, Director of Fiscal Research and Policy Analysis New York State Comptroller's Office; Welfare Reform, Health Care Reform/Tobacco Subsidy: Dollars and Sense.
- February 8, 2001 Jean McPheeters, President, Tompkins County Chamber of Commerce; Community Partnerships: How They Work.
- February 14, 2002 Ron Deutsch, Executive Director, SENSES (Statewide Emergency Network for Social and Economic Security); Issues Affecting Low-income People in New York State.
- February 11, 2003 Marty Luster, Retired New York State Assemblyman; The Full Marty.
- February 5, 2004 Kathy A. Okun, First Lady, Cornell University; A Sense of Community.
- February 1, 2005 Mildred Warner, Associate Professor, Cornell University's Department of City and Regional Planning; Valuing Human Services from an Economic Developmental Perspective.
- February 16, 2006 Doug Sauer, Executive Director, Council of Community Services of New York State; Supporting Services in our Community; Responding to Challenges Affecting Nonprofits.
- March 7, 2007 David J. Skorton, President, Cornell University; Use of Cornell's Resources to Bring Together People, Problems, and Solutions in Our Community.
- February 8, 2008 Jerry Friedman, Executive Director, American Public Human Services Association, Washington, D.C.; Future Trends in Human Services.
- February 19, 2009 Thomas R. Rochon, President, Ithaca College; The Role of Community in Ithaca College's Educational Mission.
- February 19, 2010 Marcia Fort, Director, GIAC (Greater Ithaca Activities Center); Getting Here From There: 35 Years of Creating Solutions Together
- February 24, 2011 Dr. Luvelle Brown, New Superintendent, Ithaca City School District; The Need for Community Investment in the Lives of Our Youth
- February 23, 2012 Mayor Svante Myrick, City of Ithaca; The Importance of Human Services to a Community: How I got to where I am today
- February 21, 2013 John Rudd, President and CEO, Cayuga Medical Center; Building Community Connections
- March 7, 2014 Jean McPheeters, President, Tompkins County Chamber of Commerce

- March 19, 2015 Lynette Chappell-Williams, University Title IX Coordinator and Associate Vice President, Inclusion and Workforce Diversity for Cornell University; *Our Future Workforce
- February 18, 2016 Mary Opperman, Vice President for Human Resources, Cornell University
- February 16, 2017 Ann Monroe, Past President of the Health Foundation of Western and Central New York; *Opportunities for Success in a Time of Confusion, Contention, and Change
- February 15, 2018 Dr. Orinthia Montague, President of Tompkins Cortland Community College