Presenter Bio:

Joseph Milliman has worked in the Emergency Medical Services field since November 2007. Initially, he started as a volunteer for the Greater Baldwinsville Ambulance Corps as an Attendant. In 2008, he completed his EMT-Basic course, followed by his Advanced EMT in 2009 and eventually becoming a Paramedic in 2011. Over the next 5 years, he worked with several EMS agencies within the 5 county CNYEMS region as well as 1 in Madison County. In 2012, he moved to Groton and in 2015 became a full time Paramedic for the Village of Groton. He has spent the last several years working as the EMS Supervisor for the Groton Fire Department and Ambulance. In March of 2023, he was hired by the Tompkins County Department of Emergency Response as the EMS Program Manager—where he works as an EMS/Fire Coordinator and has been working at developing the county-based EMS program.
